Proceedings: (In Chambers) Order to Show Cause Why Case Should Not Be Dismissed for Failure to Effect Service and Prosecute

On August 1, 2022, plaintiff Kenneth Davidson filed a complaint against defendant TKCA1, LLC. Under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 4(m), plaintiff was required to serve defendant with the summons and complaint within 90 days after the complaint's filing, that is, no later than October 30, 2022. That date has now passed, but plaintiff has not filed any proof of such service with the court, nor is there any other indication before the court that the complaint has been served on any defendant.

Accordingly, plaintiff is ORDERED to show cause in writing by November 15, 2022 why this case should not be dismissed without prejudice for plaintiff's failure to prosecute and serve defendant within the required time period. Plaintiff may discharge this Order to Show Cause by filing, not later than November 15, 2022, proof of service of the summons and complaint.

The court warns plaintiff that failure to respond to the Order to Show Cause by November 15, 2022, or further failure to prosecute this action in accordance with court orders, may result in dismissal of this action for failure to prosecute.
